POLICE ARREST THREE SUSPECTS IN 2006 CHOLLAS VIEW MURDER

San Diego Police Department Homicide detectives have arrested three suspects in the August 2006 murder of 17-year old Michael Daniels in Chollas View.

On August 6, 2006, Daniels was shot as he stood with two companions in the 4700 block of Guymon Street. He died a short time later after being transported to the hospital.

During follow-up investigation, detectives identified Kevin McCoy (22), Joshua Morrison (21) and his brother, Leo Morrison (23), as suspects in the murder. Last night, Homicide Unit detectives arrested McCoy in the 5400 block of Bay View Heights Place. This morning, Gang Suppression Team officers arrested Joshua Morrison in the 4400 block of Benfield Court and a short time later arrested Leo Morrison in the 800 block of S. 45th Street. All three were booked into San Diego County Jail on murder charges.

Already in custody for Daniels' murder is Adrian Lewis (21), who was arrested on January 22, 2007, and is currently in San Diego County Jail awaiting his next court appearance.
